Dear Betsy,

Sorry we coukdn't get together on my recent trip. I left about the time you returned. I was worried for a while, when there was no answer on your phone.

However, this had a good result, for I know that there is a case of mistaken identity, on my part, having read the names on the mailboxes. The name I identified with a position from your speaking of it is that of a different man. The man who was your neighbor is still of interest, however, for reasons I cannot now specify but will when I see you again. Therefore, I wish you would note everything you recall and mail it to me, and as soon as you can, so I can digest it before I return.

I have no less interest in the seecond man, victim of that special kind of whipping, an otherwise delight.

I have been so busy I haven't had a chance to play the tape back. I am certain there is valuable information in it. Bambi has been located. I was not able to talk to her. Perhaps others will.

Again, thanks for your help.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
